“ My sincere condolences for the loss of such a wonderful man, Mr. Middleton. I’m really sorry I won’t be able to come to the viewing as my family and I are vacationing in Florida. Mr. Middleton was such a loving, caring family man who adored you & your children in every sense of the word. I remember admiring him at work when you would call because everything stopped. It didn’t matter whether he was on an important conference call, in a meeting, etc., you were always more important. Now that is love! He was the best story teller and wrote the best poems! He will be missed by all. Thank you Mr. Middleton for blessing my life for the time I knew you. I’ll make sure I’ll be thinking & honoring you when I watch the fireworks in Disney tomorrow. God Bless you & your family Mrs. Middleton during this very difficult time. May God wrap his arms around you & comfort you in this time of need.
