“ Dear Weatherly Family,
I am so sorry.. I just heard about Phyllis' passing.
One of the most tender, charming, sharp, funny ladies I have ever know. We met thru her tour company business and quickly became dear friends.
She made me feel like so special, as I am sure she did with everyone ..she had that gift.
I will never forgot her rehearsing with me one evening a song for a wedding I was going to be singing in.
We were singing at their piano in their home.
She stepped out of the room for a moment and Jim shared with me that was the first time they had music back in their house in a very long time.
It gave me chills that night and still does to this day.
After our wedding she and Jim hosted a lovely dinner at their beautiful home for our families.
Then we all were together to open our wedding presents.
She loved her family more than words can say, as you all know.
And Allison you were just a little girl when I first met your grandmother. She was so thrilled to have you in her life. She would always say one day Julie, Allison will be president.
I could go on and on.. I feel I am blessed and a better person that I got to know Phyllis & Jim.
Such a beautiful couple and friends.. May you always know how much you are missed.
Until we meet again..
