“ Hi Billy and Mary Clare, So many wonderful memories of you dad hanging out with my dad, of Set's on York Rd. and also growing up in the world of dad's who hunted and fished (big time) and who taught us how to shoot a gun and catch a fish. Your dad was special with those sparkling eyes, smile and great laugh. Luther and I are still up here in Blue Hill, Maine but we do make about two trips a year to MD and try to connect with family and dear pals there. Maybe we'll see you next time? Or you are always invited here to see us. Much love and hugs to you both from me and my family.

“ My dear Mary Clare has been on my mind a lot recently. Now I understand why. First losing Mama Fitchett and now Papa Fitchett. I'm so saddened. I have so many memories of Mama and Papa Fitchett. They were like family to me as a young high schooler. Papa Fitchett loved to hunt. I vividly remember Mary Clare showing me the mounted head of the first deer she ever shot. He was so proud of her. Sending you lots of love. MC. Tiffany (Montgomery) Bishop
