“ Alan and Ruth were such special people. They were instrumental in helping to get Ocean City Baptist Church started so many years ago. Lynn and I have sweet memories of this amazing couple. They always brought such love and blessings to us at the church in Ocean City.

“ Family memories- Ruth and Alan's wedding. My sister and I were flower girls. We were so in awe of both of them. They were such a gorgeous couple. When I was about to be married I just wanted to include their two oldest daughters, Zoanne and Beverly, in my wedding. They were adorable (Karen was too young and Dean wasn't around yet). I'll always remember Alan as so kind and caring. He also had a great sense of humor. After Ruth passed he continued to send Christmas cards with some news. As late as this past Christmas, he noted "I'm still here and expecting my eighteenth great-grandchild"! A long, lovely life- may he rest in the loving arms of God with his beloved Ruth.
