

Mr. Alexander Yearley

April 14, 1947 - September 27, 2024

Alexander G. Yearley died on September 27 at the age of 77. He is survived by his partner, Ted Lewis; his brothers, Graham and Chuck; his sister Mallory Waterman; four nephews; and one niece. Alec attended Gilman before going on to earn degrees at Kenyon College & Johns Hopkins University. Alec then served four years in the United States Air Force. His professional career began as a banker at Union Trust, and finished as an investment advisor with Cambridge Investments. The family will celebrate Alec's life in a private ceremony.

Tribute Wall

“ Alex was a close friend for 40 years. We attended Grace & St Peter's and All Saints Church (Rehoboth) during those decades. He is greatly missed. Rest in Peace. Sandy and Harry

Sanford Ayers - October 22, 2024 at 12:08 PM

“ Alex was a good and caring friend. We both worked at Union Trust and attended Grace & St Peter's Church and Kenyon College. He was a true gentleman and represented the best of Old Baltimore. Rest in Peace my good friend. Charlie Peace

Charles F Peace IV - October 13, 2024 at 04:58 PM