“ My sincere and deepest condolences to the Ribeiro Family. Father Ribeiro was my classmate at St Joseph's College in Hong Kong, Class of 1963. My sister studied the piano with his mother in Hong Kong.

We lost touch for many years until my son's graduation at Georgetown University in 2000. I still use the Homiletic Resource he recommended to me. He had a vocation to the priesthood many years earlier and I had a vocation to the Permanent Diaconate and was a few weeks ordained when we finally met. His Ordination Bookmark is still marking the pages in my Divine Office. We even attended a Mass he celebrated that weekend and heard him preach.

We had a wonderful reunion. I was just looking at the picture he took with my family the other day. Only found out about his passing two days ago. He was such a role model for me and for all of my family.

I am confident he is safely in the tender loving arms of Jesus and his mother.

May he rest in peace. May his souls and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

Dear Alvaro, we'll see you again one day when we see the face of our God. Please put in a good word for all of us who are left behind.

“ He was the spiritual guide for my CLC (Christian Life Community) group in Hong Kong when I was an undergrad and fresh graduate. Lost contact with him since he went to Georgetown University. Tried looking for him last year when I visited DC but to no avail.

He'll be dearly missed! I miss and can vividly recall his laughter, humor, love of classical music. He's so a wonderful mentor and great guy to be with! I'm glad that he's come into my life, dedicated and shared his intellect with young fellows and that we had spent time together. May he rest in God's peace!

“ Padre Ribeiro was my mentor at Georgetown, and a dear friend. We kept in touch in my years after graduation, and I will miss him greatly.
