“ I only met her Ann a few times through my cousins Phil & Nancy Chase. Nancy’s maiden name was Dunnock and Nancy’s mother and Ann’s father were siblings. Ann had been the flower girl at Phil & Nancy’s wedding in 1941. My Sincere Condolences To Her Relatives Kelt Smith

When I was around five, I went to live with my mother’s sister, Aunt Milly. Ann was Aunt Milly’s daughter and my cousin. My mother, Margaret and family moved to Wyoming. We lived in a ranch which Ann loved to come visit so spent a good amount of her vacations visiting us there. Then when we moved to Arizona, she again came to visit. She and my older brother Charlie were about the same age and had grown up together when my mother lived in Maryland. My little brother, Fred Camp and I were ten years younger than Ann and the rest of the cousins, so Charlie and Ann were babysitting age. Ann visited me many times in Arizona after I was married and we drove all over Arizona. She was very fond of my mother and my mother, who was an excellent knitter, knitted her a number of skirts and sweaters. Condolences to our remaining relatives and her friends. . . . Suzanne Lowery
