“ We both liked MPT shows. We would critique the ones we liked. Especially, Foyle's War. She always wanted to tell the ending, when she knew it. We would laugh at "Andy Griffith" especially Barney & the goings on in Mayberry. I would always say silly things to her & she'd laugh. I will miss her TREMENDOUSLY

Got to know her and her family through their visits to the Tides Inn. She was a lovely and dear petson.
