“ Becky, my sister in law, was a truly wonderful mother and wife to my brother Mickey. I met her when I was only 13 when she joined our family in Mt. Washington on South Rd. Through the years she supported Mickey and raised her children with a gracious and loving heart. What a house with 5 very active kids!! All grown now and will surely miss her fun and laughter. Rest in peace.

What I remember about Becky is her smile, so sweet and welcoming. There was a serious, sharp side too no doubt, but what stays is that smile you knew would carry through anything. Rest peacefully.
