“ I was a neighbor of the Bosworth family in Great Neck, NY way back in the day. My older sister was best friend of their daughter Bobby who died at the age of 19 in 1953. I was ten years old at the time. My parents would not let me attend her service thus I never had closer on her passing. I think of Bobby on every April 12 th. I would be invited to play with the Bosworth grandchildren during that time. I have always wonder why Bobby chose to go to a college on the edge of civilization in northern Maine? Bobby was a beautiful vibrant young woman. I am so glad that I found the Bosworth family because it has given me peace in my old age.
