

A. Ronald Menchine

April 24, 1934 - September 10, 2010

Suddenly on September 10, 2010 at his residence, A. RONALD "Ron" MENCHINE, aged 76 years, the beloved son of the late Honorable W. Albert Menchine and Mildred Hendricks Menchine. He was a graduate of McDonogh School in 1952 and the University of Maryland in 1956. At one time he had been the "Voice of the Senators" baseball team's sports announcer in Washington, DC. He held various other positions for announcing throughout the state of Maryland and Washington, DC. He also did a lot of work doing voiceovers for radio, TV, and several movies. He was also an author of several collectors book guides on sports and post cards. Ron was an avid collector of sports memorabilia and post cards. He is survived by his sister, Anne Menchine Craig of Palm Coast, FL, two nephews, Gregory and Jeffrey Hooker, both of Orlando, FL, his beloved aunt, Angela Keister of Baltimore, MD and two cousins, Christopher and William Menchine of northern California. Most important, he had many wonderful friends, especially from the Country Club of Maryland who will miss him.
