“ I feel such sadness. Ava was such a gentle and beautiful light. Each time I'd open the door at carpool drop-off this year, I'd marvel at her sweet face. Shaking her hand, and Ellie's, was always one of the highlights of my day. I will miss her. My deepest sympathies.

“ Melinda and Tim, please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. The girls and I absolutely loved when Ava would sit with us at Lisa's and captivate us with her beautiful smile, her stories and the occasional slip of a "bad word". Thank you for sharing Ava with us. Gina, Dan, Bailey, Sydney, and Ty.

“ Dear friend, Timothy and loving wife and mother, Melinda,

This is Anarg Frangos expressing my profound condolences on the loss of your beautiful and precious child, Ava. Words cannot express the understanding I have on the loss of someone so young and out of the cycle of life. My wife of 64 years passed almost a year ago, and I grieve deeply. To lose a lovely child is beyond imagination. I pray that GOD will bring you comfort and direct you to know that AVA is in heaven, and that you will be with her in heaven some day. GOD bless you, and bring you solace knowing AVA is happy and at peace and knows you loved and love her still. Anarg

“ We are so sorry for your loss. We have wonderful memories of seeing Melinda and Ava a few times at the zoo with Maddie. It seems the girls could endlessly play around the elephant area. Ava was a happy, beautiful girl and so loved. Your family is in our prayers.

“ I met Ava just a few times during her short life but every visit with her were always special and joyful. She was one of the most endearing little girls that I have ever met. I remember her dancing and laughing with my - then teenage- daughters who simply adored her. I remember her modeling some of her favorite outfits at her grandma Novella's house. I remember her intriguing look as my mother was speaking to her in french. I remember her sweet little voice saying excitedly "do you know that tomorrow is Christmas Eve?!" She must have repeated it a hundred times. I never did put away the last Christmas card I received with her picture. Ava looks so beautiful, I wanted to keep it up long before I found out that she was ill. Melinda and Tim, It seems that words are so useless in moments like this. Just know that we love you and that we will always love Ava. You are in my thoughts and prayers daily.

“Ava was sunshine personified in everyone's life. We'll always remember her bright eyes, her imaginative magic tricks, her crooked lipstick, her giggly laughter, and her fighting spirit. We're sorry that she was taken away at such a young age. We continue to pray for the entire family.

“ I remember the day that I baptized Ava Celani at St. Simon and Jude Church in Greentree, PA. It was a day of great joy and happiness. And today when I heard the news that she passed away, I thought of the words of the song, “I’ll See You Again” by Westlife:

“Always you will be part of me and I will forever feel your strength, when I need it most. You’re gone now, gone but not forgotten. I can’t say this to your face but I know you hear.

*I’ll see you again, you never really left.
I feel you walk beside me. I know I’ll see you again.”*

I offer my heartfelt compassion and assurance of prayers to Tim and Melinda as I celebrate Mass of Thanksgiving this evening for this special angel.

May our faith be our guide and trust that we will see her again.

With Love and Prayers, Fr. Rich Jones.
