“ Barbara was kind and helpful to my husband when he made his daily morning rounds of the PNC Bank, Tuxedo Pharmacy, & Eddie's. After he died, she and I shared a bond. She comforted me by remembering him. After her injury, I was impressed by her cheerfulness and grace in the face of adversity. She was a courageous and lovely woman. --Anne Heuisler

“ I most remember Barbara's early morning walks. I can't fail to think of her when I step out before the sun rises. I admire her spirit and the courage she showed through this last part of her earthly life. May she rest in peace.
