“ I am cleaning out my study, and found a page I had torn out of the John Hopkins Magazine some 12 years ago. It noted BJ's passing. Better late than never, I say. BJ and I played football together at JHU, although I was 2 years ahead of him. I remember him as polite, reserved, fun, nice, and one to flash that electric smile. He enjoyed the summers at OC, and was a true Maryland kid to me, an outsider from Texas. I remember him fondly and forever!

“ Last Fall (2011), I remember explaining to BJ how I was planning to propose to my now wife. Once I finished he said, "Will, you know what would really be cool is if you can some how record it so that the two of you will always have the memory!". Because of BJ, my wife and I will always have a very special memory that we can look back on. Thanks for the advice BJ and for positively impacting my life and career. I'll miss you!
