

Mrs Betty Dorfler Hoatson

March 15, 1934 - May 25, 2017

Betty Ann Dorfler Hoatson, age 83, of Upperco, Maryland, passed away on Thursday, May 25, 2017. Betty's husband Donald, who she met as a teenager at The Church of the Nativity Cedarcroft, passed away last October. She is survived by her sons Richard of Glen Rock and David of Chestertown, and grandsons Michael and Christopher. She was born March 15, 1934 in Baltimore to parents Harry and Bertie Dorfler of Govans. The small family also included her aunt, Major Elsie Judson, one of the first officers in the Woman's Army Corps, who supported code breaking during WW II at Vint Hill Farm. Betty graduated Eastern High School in 1951 and became a registered nurse at University of Maryland, class of 1954. Betty taught lower school at St. Paul's School in Brooklandville. She was a great mother, always taking care of her family. She enjoyed cats, sewing, and puzzles. Betty will be missed.
