“ I met Chris ten years ago on a bus trip to Canada with the Travel Authority. I have not seen her since but can still remember how comfortable she made everyone feel and how beautifully she danced to the Greek music. I was sorry to read about her death in the Baltimore Sun.

“ Dear Sweet Miss Chris,
We have so many wonderful memories of you and all the family from our childhood. I will always cherish these and hold them dear to my heart. You had such a great laugh and used it often and we were probably a pretty trying bunch!! From your lovely home, to the kids, to indoor Cloe to outdoor 'what's his name, no one's allowed to play with him, he's for hunting'; to great Greek food, and so much more! We still sometimes refer to each other as "Sport" in honor of Mr Ed!
I think a big part of who we are today, our morals, our faith, our need for family, is partly due to your strong sense of these values. I am so honored to have been a part of your family - we all feel this way.

Love, Vicki and the Mascaro Kids

“ Please know that Chris was such an inspiration to me. Her wit, laughter and her dedication to helping the community by being involved in the Woman's Club, has been missed. She also shared recipes with me which I will treasure. There isnt any words that will fill the void of her passing. I will keep you all in my prayers.
