“ Funeral Blues

*Stop all the clocks, cut off the telephone,
Prevent the dog from barking with a juicy
bone,
Silence the pianos and with muffled drum
Bring out the coffin, let the mourners come.*

*Let aeroplanes circle moaning overhead
Scribbling on the sky the message 'He is Dead'.
Put crepe bows round the white necks of the public doves,
Let the traffic policemen wear black cotton gloves.*

*The stars are not wanted now; put out every one,
Pack up the moon and dismantle the sun,
Pour away the ocean and sweep up the wood;
For nothing now can ever come to any good.*

We shared wonderful memories of our youth.

“ *In my 30 years at Bell Atlantic, I had a lot of bosses. Hands down, Bruce was the best and my favorite. We worked so well together! I will never forget the good times we had and even the small stuff. Like sometimes when he'd have a peanut butter and jelly sandwich for lunch (something we both loved) and just like me, he'd eat around the crust edges, saving the middle for the last. He called it the 'filet' of the sandwich. Yep, that was my buddy Bruce. The world is a sadder place without him.
