“ We were so sorry to learn about Bryan's passing. While we didn't know Bryan very well, Evan spoke highly of him and really enjoyed being Bryan's housemate over the last few years.

We are praying that peace and comfort will surround all of you during this difficult time.

“ Chip, Jayne and I are both heartbroken about the loss of Bryan. We both remember you talking to him while watching Stevenson lacrosse games in the President's box. The smile on your face showed how much you loved him. While we never knew Bryan, the stories you told about him said everything. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Oh Chip, I cannot imagine losing a child. I will be holding you and your family in my heart and in my prayers. I hear that Bryan was a wonderful young man who will be sorely missed by all who knew him. Please hold yourself tenderly in this difficult time - I'm sending lots of love and healing support to you. “ Thoughts and prayers to Bryan and his family. We were lucky at Dulaney to have him supporting our teams of students for many years. Thank you to all that you did for so many of us. Peace to you and your family.
