“ Sister Elizabeth was a longtime principal of Mount Calvary School in Forestville MD. She was greatly loved by teachers and students alike. My mother taught the fourth grade during those years and she praised Sister Elizabeth highly for her support of the faculty, love of the children, efficiency, even temper, and I could go on and on. She made a big impact on many lives. Condolences to her family and to SSND, Joseph Cronin.

“ Sister Elizabeth was a blessing to the St. Thomas Aquinas school. She was kind and caring to the children. Years after my children graduated she would still ask about them. We were blessed to know her!
With caring sympathy to Sister's family and the SSND community.
