“ Carol and John Winterson were beautiful people, I had the pleasure living at their house as a college student and was immediately accepted as part of their family. Carole had an exceptional memory along with her experience in education assisted me with my studies, home life in Annapolis, girlfriends...everything. She was a blessing at a tough time in my life. A second mom to me, the whole family was full of energy and love.
I am heart broken and will miss her very much.
