“ I have had the pleasure of knowing Carole Lang for the pass the seven years. I worked with her daily and enjoyed her company, I am in activities here at the Presbyterian Home Of Maryland and Carole was so smart, full of wisdom and knowledge, we enjoyed many activities together. Her writing was her true passion and I had the pleasure of reading her articles. I truly miss her and her company, she will always be missed and LOVED.

“ CAS was a sweet, kind and loving person. She loved to read and her passion was writing about South Jersey history. She loved her daughter Robin and her grandchildren more than anything. A more gentle soul you will never meet. God Bless you CAS.
Love, John
