Carrie was one of my special nieces. I remember her as a beautiful new born and watched her grow until she was 3 or 4. She captured my heart at birth and has saddened me at her passing. We re-gained contact after moving back to Maryland and she was the most pleasant and beautiful person I met in Maryland. The world is a sadder place without her. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Ellen, Desiree, Mike and the rest of the family. May God give you peace and understanding at this most trying time.

I haven't seen Carrie in years. We lost touch when she moved away from Maryland. Carrie stood with me when I got married 14 years ago. I was so sad to hear the news of her passing. She had a beautiful spirit and the I will certainly miss her. My prayers are sent out to her family and friends at such a difficult time.
