“Charle was my Uncle. But more like a father figure to me. Charle and Liz took me in at a point in my life when I was lost. Charle convinced me to go back to school and graduate. At some point I lost my way again and really hurt and let him and Liz down. I never got the chance to tell him how sorry I was for doing the things I did and that I loved him for everything he did and put up with. So Uncle Charle I know you are up there flying high. I love you and ask for your forgiveness. I have been clean and had my life together for over 6 years now. God bless you. With love from your nephew Clinton.”

“I will always remember Charlie for his care free attitude and laid back demeanor. He had an easy smile and always made you feel welcome and right at home. My daughter Angela and I visited with Charlie and Liz practically every summer weekend and enjoyed his cookouts, company and their swimming pool where he taught Elizabeth and Angela how to swim. Charlie's love for Liz and his girls Elizabeth and Grace extended to include Gene who he treated like a brother. We last saw Charlie at Graces wedding, where we once again enjoyed his gracious hospitality. His passing has left a huge void in the lives of his loved ones and an empty spot in the hearts of his friends.

“ I loved Charlie for his easy-going attitude and his even keeled manner. He had a way of making you feel very comfortable and welcomed with his easy smile. I admired and appreciated for them, his love and dedication to Liz and his daughters Elizabeth and Grace. He considered Gene as a brother. His passing has left a big void in all their lives and in the lives of anyone who was fortunate enough to know Charlie.

With sympathy and love- Donna and Tom Giampaolo
