“ I have known this man for years while attending the Y in Towson. He and his wife, Ruthie are two of the finest folks I have ever met. He was a man of character and enjoyed life along with his beautiful wife of 64 years. She brightened each day with her quick wit and great personality. I looked forward to seeing her come through the door dragging her signature "penguin" bag on wheels behind her. Charles was always caring and concerned for his Ruthie. I asked Ruth how they met and she told me in a serious tone of voice, " I looked across the room and I knew that this was the man for me." They honored their marriage vows demonstrating their love and commitment for over 6 decades. As for myself and the entire Y family, we will miss this unique man with the floppy hat. He really could pass for Henry Fonda. God bless his family as they go through this trying time. Charlie was special.

Love and prayers,

Bill Hennick
