“ To Gary, Lisa, Tommy, Lucy, Jamie, Grandma Judy, and all those who had the pleasure of having shared a moment of Christopher's life: our hearts will forever keep Christopher in a warm embrace. I will always remember Christopher's beautiful smile, his laughter, his dancing eyes, his helpfulness, his kind heart, and how much he loved his family. I can still hear the echo of his deep voice saying "Hey Aunt Sandra" whenever he greeted me, I can still feel his hugs. I'll treasure the memories of his visits to our home, the sleepovers, the family dinners, and outings, and the sound of Christopher's and Isabella's voices busy in conversations, play, and laughter.

What a gift to have watched him grow from birth to the handsome, talented, brave, funny, authentic young man he is. He will forever be present in our lives as the vibrant colors of his aura will embrace us all, for eternity.

Christopher's life I believe goes on to another stage, his next adventure, and he takes with him all our love.

Hey Christopher, I love and miss you, hugs.

Aunt Sandra, Uncle Rafael and Isabella

“ I remember in 2007 when my sister Margaret and I were in Baltimore for my Aunt Rose’s funeral. Gary and his wife graciously welcomed us to stay with them. I believe Christopher was around five years old at the time. They had just completed decorating his bedroom to encourage him to sleep in it. He will be remembered for the sweet young boy he was then and is now ❤️. May he rest in forever peace 🙏

“ To Gary, Lisa, Sandra and Family,
I can't imagine the hurt that you are going through. I just want you to know that I am here for you, if there is anything in my power that I could do to help you in any way. My thoughts and prayers are with you all, and don't hesitate if there is something you think of that I could be of service for you.

Dear Christopher Leo:

As we gather around to share our thoughts of a wonderful, dear son, grandson, brother, cousin, and friend, we think of you as the sweet person you are. You have shared these qualities throughout your life and made us throughout your life, who we are now.

We love you Chris, and look forward to being together with all again-to love and to share our dear family and friends.

With love, your Grandmother, Judie
