“ Cyrile was a mentor and a friend to me. One of her favorite ideas was "why don't we meet up for breakfast?" I will miss her very much.

“ I will miss our morning 7 am talks. I will always remember your beautiful kind laugh and your guidance. Thanks for the tips on the delete button. The 10 years you have been in my life seem like it was just not long enough, but the memories we shared will last a lifetime. Love and miss you dearly,

“ We, members of the Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians, Inc., grieving the loss of our Sister Cyrile, who during this life was joined with us in the bonds of Friendship, Unity, and Christian Charity, come together to offer our prayers for the happy repose of her soul. She has passed to her eternal reward, happy in the consolation of the Faith of her Fathers. We shall meet again when we join her in Tir n'an Og (pronounced Tiernan Og), the place of the blessed, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
