

Mr. Decatur Howard Miller

June 29, 1932 - February 2, 2015

On February 2, 2015, Decatur Howard Miller (82) died at Johns Hopkins Hospital of complications from lung cancer. He was born in Baltimore to L. Vernon Miller and Katherine Baum Miller. All who knew him remember his irrepressible spirit, sparkling intelligence, wry sense of humor and unflagging generosity. He was by all measures a scholar and a gentleman.

He is survived by a family whom he adored, cherished and admired: Sally Burnam Smith Miller, his wife of 51 extremely happy years, his devoted daughter and son-in-law, Clemence Mary Katherine Miller and Lyle Buck Kissack, his grandson (and great pal), Ramsey Decatur Kissack, and his brother, L. Vernon Miller, Jr., with whom he always had a close friendship. Deke's family will have a remembrance gathering on or about his birthday, June 29th.
