“ Dear Anna and Natalie - I worked with Don for 7 years at BPICG. I learned so much from him and truly enjoyed being part of his team. He spoke of you both often and fondly. I am so sorry for your loss. You are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

*With deepest sympathy and heartfelt condolences,

“ Dearest Anna and Natalie,
We are so shocked and sorry to hear of Don's passing. Some of our favorite Baltimore memories include our times together at the Ravens games and our tailgating adventures! We were blest and lucky to know him. We wish you and Natalie peace and love knowing he is being held in the arms of God and the angels. Love, Baarbara and Colman

“ He was a really fun great-uncle to Lacey, my granddaughter. Teased her here and she loved it. Anyone makes my son and his daughter laugh or smile, well all I can say is Thank You God, for him being part of our lives. And Thank you Don. R.I.P.

“ I took Great British Writers (today would be considered honors English) just to be in the same room as my crush if a lifetime, Donald. I had to read out loud and instead of correctly reading Colonel, I said "Col on all". There was a hush and then Donald spoke up....."Darlene, you have to be serious in this class". I was saved from embarrassment but still felt stupid. Months later he brought it up and I realized he really thought I was trying to be funny. Dodged a stupid bullet.....one of many.
I hope you are pain free and playing soccer old friend.

“ Our hearts are broken and I will miss my brother-in-law, who I know loved me and was very good to me and all of our family. Life won't be the same without our "Don the Hood"! Now you can rest easy in the arms of Jesus and join in the table of the Lord with all of our family and friends. With deepest sympathy to all, Love you Luie!
