“ Aunt Donna was like a second mother to me. I have several fond memories of her. Not only did she shower me with gifts she also loved me and was very affectionate and treated me as her own daughter. I remember staying with her during the summer and falling asleep on her pull out sleeper sofa watching Saturday Night Live. I also enjoyed my weekends with Uncle Frank and Aunt Don that usually consisted of a movie at The Senator theatre in Baltimore, a nice meal out, and bargain hunting for treasures at yard sales. She was truly a giving person my junior prom she bought my gown, paid for hair, make up, nails and shoes. She made me feel like a true princess that day.

Uncle Frank my deepest sympathies. I know how much you loved one another. I love you. Aunt Don, you are forever in my heart. I love you always.

Lovingly,

Carrie
