“ I had the grace of meeting Sr. Doris Ann in Oconomowoc, WI at the Redemptorist Retreat Center, shortly before I left for my new ministry in Tucson, Arizona. Sr. Jane Mary Lorbiecki, of Milwaukee, introduced her to me. Today I received word of Sr. Doris Ann's sudden death. Please be assure of my prayers for her and for the whole Notre Came Community. She intercedes for us now, 24/7 as he enjoys the beatific vision of the risen Lord as a member of the Communion of Saints. We have all been blessed by Sr. Doris Ann. God love you all. Fr. Edward Vella, CSsR - Tucson, AZ

“ Remembering Sr. Doris' lifetime of service and dedication to the church, especially to the Hispanic church. She served many years as executive director of the Instituto Nacional Hispano de Liturgia, and later played a pivotal role for U.S. Catholics as the multicultural specialist at the USCCB secretariat for divine worship. After her tenure in Washington she served in the Southwest U.S. as director of the diocesan office of worship in El Paso, TX, where I had the pleasure of working with her on a close basis. Sr. Doris had a kind heart — coupled with a formidable and determined mind. She was strong in her will but gentle in her compassion. Those who know her recognized her quick wit; a good laugh often lurked behind her stoic charisma. May she find eternal rest and joy in the resurrection as angels and saints welcome her to paradise.

“ A good friend and and frequently a kind person to all, Sister Doris was committed to liturgy and music and was not affable to those with whom she worked. Her love of family and community were also evident in her relationship to them and in through her storytelling about them during the many times that I shared with her as Executive Director of the Instituto Nacional Hispano de Liturgia, Inc, prior to her joining the USCCB Office of the Committee on Divine Worship. May she rest in peace. We will always remember her and keep her in our prayers.
