“ I remember Joanie and I took our moms to the aquarium and I think to dinner as well. We had such a nice time. Now they are both gone. I thought the world of Ms. Dot.

“ My love and heartfelt hugs go to Dottie’s family. Dot was an amazing woman who took me on vacations with Cindy & Sandy. She shared her love of gardening with me and many many visits to her home, since Cindy, Sandy and I were nearly inseparable. I love you Dot. Thank you for sharing your home and your life with me.

“ My mom, I always said knew 3 different ways to get to any one place. It broke her heart when she could no longer get in her beloved van and just drive around and explore. In 2015 my mom, my son a family friend and myself went to the Outer Banks. My mom took us 6 hours farther from our normal travel time to get home. She kept messing around with the GPS to find a new way to get home and see some new interesting sights. We finally had to take the GPS away from her. That's my mom always the adventurer, always the explorer. I'm going to miss her so much. I love you mom. #2 daughter, Mary Z Whatley

“ I was blessed to work for Dot when it was originally called Essex Community College and when they merge the three colleges which is now known as CCBC. She loved helping students and worked extremely hard as the Registrar. She was a real role model to be proud of and we became close friends. She shared much with me. Especially about her family who she loved more than words could ever express. Plus, her faith brought her through so many rough times over the years which must have made God Happy. May you RIP dear Dot!!! I will never forget you for all the good and bad times we went through as a team. I was honored and blessed to be part of your life.
