“ I remember Ed from our days at McDonogh and I have not seen him since my graduation in 1960. But as I remember him, he was an honest, caring and responsible young man who obviously carried those traits into his adult life. I played football at McD with Ed and will remember his tenacious spirit and desire to win. May God take him into his heavenly kingdom. Thanks Ed for the memories and friendship.

“ Mr. Ed was such a caring, generous and dedicated man - all qualities passed on to my wonderful friend, Amy. He will be missed, but will always be in our hearts. We have to remember to close our eyes and listen, and we will hear.

“ Ed was a very loving husband, father and grandfather. I feel truly blessed to have been able to call him friend. I will miss the many talks we had and supportive he was. If you ever needed something you knew he would be there for you. He will be truly missed. PHUMC will not be the same without him.

“ Mr. Ed has been so good to our family. When he asked your opinion on something he really wanted your opinion. We are blessed to know him and without him and Ms. Sue I would not have my amazing and loving friend Amy.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you, Sue, Amy, Cathy and families. Ed was one of the most generous and caring men I knew. His generosity to me was not so much monetary, but included lots of long talks full of his wonderful advice. I will truly miss his friendship and leadership.
