“ To The Family of Edward Johnson

You wouldn't know me and I doubt that Ed Johnson would even remember me . I was 17 and a student in accounting at the University of Baltimore. I had no idea of what accounting or a CPA meant. However,I took a chance .Ed Johnson was my first instructor and because of him I made the right decision .

At 21, I passed the CPA exam went on to start an accounting firm which eventfully merged with a National firm. During the course of my career , I was elected Chair of the MACPA and became head of the State Board of Accountancy .

I have vivid memories of the event when I was selected as Alumnus of the year . When making my acceptance speech ,I saw Ed in the back of the room , and shouted out to him YOU CHANGED MY LIFE !

I will always remember him as an instructor and a kind and caring human being !

May he rest in Peace
