“ Ned was my husband Tom's first cousin, and a special memory I have of him was when he knew I was having an art show in the Philadelphia area and drove all the way up from Baltimore that night to see it! I was so overwhelmed by his kindness and also his love of art. I believe at that point, my husband Tom had passed, so I think he just really wanted to be there for me. What a sweet and caring man he was. Sometimes I wish I had gotten to know him better, after hearing all the wonderful things people said about him at the service.
