

Ms. Elizabeth "Joan" (Fitzpatrick) Hayden

June 24, 1932 - December 3, 2017

Elizabeth "Joan" (Fitzpatrick) Hayden of Timonium, MD was called home to be with Jesus on December 3, 2017 at the age of 85.

Joan was born in New York City on June 24, 1932 and was raised in Bronx, NY. The daughter of the late Frank and Elizabeth Fitzpatrick and sister of the late Ellen Gibbons, she attended St. Vincent Ferrer High School on the upper east side of Manhattan. Joan later moved to Flushing and New Hyde Park, NY where she raised her family before relocating to Levittown, NY and then on to Maryland in 2006.

Her career was in bookkeeping and accounting but in Maryland she found a path close to her heart as a Special Education aide at Pinewood Elementary School and with Special Needs preschoolers in the Buddy Ministry at Church of the Nativity in Timonium. Joan's devout faith and deep love of family brought many angels into her life and she in turn touched so many lives throughout the years. Joan will always be remembered for her love of Jesus and her strength and commitment to her family.

“ It has been a privilege to know Joan for the last five years. I first met her at Church of The Nativity when we were both volunteering in children's ministry and discovered that we were both in the same exercise class at Kenilworth Mall. I will truly miss Joan and feel blessed to have gotten to be a friend of hers. My condolences to her family.

“ To know Joan was to love her! She was a fiery lady with a love for life, her family, and her God. I have so many happy memories of Joan! She brought her love of children to Pinewood with her and made a difference in the lives of SO many students! Her enthusiasm was contagious. Her warmth and caring enveloped everyone around her. I was fortunate to have had her as a friend. I will miss her more than I can say.
