“ For over 20 years Liz gave her love and talent to the staff and patients of Woodholme Gl. She was beloved by all who knew her. She was smart and kind - a rare combination in this world. She loved animals, plants and music but most of all her family. She will be greatly missed. Taken too soon. Pam

“ My sister Libby was such a good friend and wonderful person. It was so much fun working with her for 14 years. The time just flew by so quickly. She is with mom and dad whom she has missed so much over the years. Tomorrow 11/11 would have been her birthday. I will miss you so much and know that you are finally at peace. Riding high in the sky Libby. Love you forever 💕💛

“ I remember New Year's Eve 1999, ringing in the new millennium with my fun aunt. We saw a cover band, and War Pigs was the first song we heard in the new year. I wish I had moved back to Maryland sooner to spend more time together, but I'm so glad I did for your last year. I hope beyond hope that you are peaceful and happy again with Grandmom and Granddad and Pickles. 💛💛💛
