

Mrs. Elizabeth Estep Weiss

January 7, 1923 - January 9, 2017

In the early morning hours of January 9, Elizabeth Estep Weiss, age 94, slipped quietly away while holding the hand of her beloved husband, John Carroll Weiss. She was predeceased by her husband of 49 years, Robert W. Dorsey and is survived by their 6 children, Anne, Priscilla, Bob, Jr., Elizabeth, Carol and Ridgely, 11 grandchildren, and a great grandchild, as well as 2 stepsons, 2 step granddaughters, a step great grandchild and a sister-in-law, Rose Estep, of West Palm Beach, FL. Known as Betsy, she grew up in Bolton Hill, served as a WAVE in WWII and attained a BA degree at the University of Maryland, College Park. Betsy was an avid painter, wonderful mother, grandmother and seamstress. She was a member of the AAUW for many years, the Cosmopolitan Dinner Club, Baltimore Symphony and Center Stage. She attended Towson University's Osher Lifelong Learning Institute and loved the opera and foreign travel.

“ As a childhood friend and a life long friend of Lisa I had the opportunity to know Lisa's mom. She was a darling woman who always greeted us with a warm smile and a cheery disposition. I remember fondly my high school years visiting the Dorsey family. There was always something baking in the kitchen and a kindly conversation to be held. My thoughts are with you all.

With my sincerest condolences,

Joanne Wolfe
