

Ella Slade Stewart

May 11, 1922 - January 11, 2012

On January 11, 2012, Ella Slade Stewart, loving wife of deceased Dr. Edwin H. Stewart of 63 years, passed away at 89 years of age of pneumonia. She was the daughter of Ella (nee Countess) and Charles F. Slade of Baltimore, The Slade family was active in training thoroughbred horses and resided at the Maryland Farm in Glen Arm, the Griftwood Farm and Sagamore Farms. She often rode the pace pony at Pimlico. Ella was a graduate of Seton High School and Mercy School of Nursing, class of 1943. She worked as an Industrial Nurse for General Motors. Ella was an active member of the Maryland General Hospital Alumni, making quilts as a fundraiser. She was also a member of the Three Arts Club and attended the Renaissance Education Program of Notre Dame College. Ella is survived by five children, Charles Stewart in Deerfield Beach Florida, Tom Stewart in Boca Raton, FL, Mary Ellen McCrea in Annapolis, Elaine Dougherty and James Stewart in Baltimore and twelve wonderful grandchildren residing in Boston, Baltimore, D.C. and Florida. Ella's legacy is her love of family and her kind and nurturing spirit that has touched all of us. The world has lost an angel.
