“ Faye

Well, there are so many ways to describe this dear woman who once was a cherished part of our lives. My wife, Laura and I first met Faye while attending the Methodist Church in Half Moon Bay, Ca and soon became close friends.

Laura, I and Faye often went to Half Moon Bay Coffee Co. in HMB for coffee & breakfast after Sunday services.

This one incident that to me defined how wonderful and funny Faye was as she always made us laugh...

One of our Sunday forays to the HMB Coffee Co. found Faye and myself standing in a long line waiting to place our orders. A discussion ensued between Faye and I concerning whose turn it was to pay. I told her that last week you paid and it was time for me to purchase the breakfasts.

There remain a disagreement between Faye and on who really paid last, and our minor spat in the line drew some attention of the long line of people behind us. Well, Faye finally relented and I prevailed. So Faye turns around to face the people behind us and says in a very audible voice (using her very best Virginia accent)"He's so good to me since the baby came!".

The confused, consternation on the faces of all those people was hilarious. And Faye and I laughed very heartily that one bright special morning!

We miss her dearly but know she is with the Lord.... We can't wait to see her once more.

God Bless all of you in Faye's family.... She was (is) a Gem!!!!
