“ Dear Frank Lavin family: I learned only days ago of the passing of Frank Lavin. I have very fond memories of growing up in Govans in the 500 block of Radnor Avenue only a few houses from the Lavin family. In a happy childhood time we played in each others yard and on the back lot and had a wonderful steep street for snow sleds in winter. Our Radnor Avenue friends---Fred Ritter, Burke Crosby, George Brown, Frank Bohn, and Carl Studz got along very well and several of us also attended Blessed Sacrament grade school. If my memory is correct Franny (his neighborhood name) after grade school went to Mt. St. Joseph High school a very long number 8 street car ride from Govans. From time to time I think about my pre teen and teen years and the time I knew Franny Lavin and his siblings John, Bob, Rita Anita Patty, Margaret and Mary. Franny was indeed a very good person.

“ To the Lavin girls, Patrick, Timmy my deepest sympathies on the passing of your dad. What a nice man he was, always a welcoming smile on his face. Now he is again with Ms Pat, which is comforting to know. I may not make it to the viewing, but wanted to let you all know you are in my thoughts.
