“ On behalf of myself and my siblings, I want to express my sympathy for the loss of your father. We never had the opportunity to meet him, but knew he was a renowned and popular surgeon in Baltimore.

My father, Dr. Joseph Edward Reahl, was his cousin. And my mother, Helen Randolph Reahl, knew your mother from nursing at Mercy.

“ I had the privilege of working for Dr. Reahl in his private office for over 35 years. He was a brilliant surgeon and compassionate human being. He was a legend in the halls of Mercy Hospital and rightly so. He worked tirelessly for the good of his patients in the hospital and in his office. He was always willing to “fit-in” someone in need. He was not only the BEST BOSS I ever had - he was my BEST FRIEND for over 50 years.

“ I met Dr. Reahl when I broke both legs as a young detective sergeant on October 16, 1975. He was highly capable, compassionate and candid. Later, as I practiced law, I had the privilege of working with him when he served as an expert witness in cases I was litigating. I got to know him as well in social settings. Ed Reahl was a gem. He benefitted me in so very many ways.
