“ Dr. Roebber- You and Mrs. Roebber will forever remain in my memory and heart as two of the kindest, warmest people I have known. Your humility and generosity were an example to us all. I truly hope you had a lovely sail into your final sunset (with Emmylou playing your favorite song), to reunite with the joyful Mrs. R. You will be dearly missed, but always remembered with a smile.

My deepest condolences to Tammy, Lisa, Mark and Dede, and their spouses and children.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of a wonderful, caring husband and father and his name was Joe Roebber. I remember when I stayed with Ruth and Joe when the children were young and when he was home he always had a child on his hip as he did whatever he was doing at the time. I remember how he loved his beautiful wife. We would visit in the summer and I loved our long chats on their beautiful porch. Joe and Ruth always made my mother and I feel so welcome. We always laughed so much on those visits and would talk about those times all winter until we went again. So much fun. Joe was an amazing family man and doctor. His was a life well lived. I know he will be so missed by so many. RIP Uncle Joe and give my Aunt a big kiss for me. I love you both so much.
