

Mrs. Helen McWilliams

April 19, 1931 - December 30, 2021

On Thursday, December 30th, 2021, Helen McWilliams, a faithful wife, mother, grandmother, and friend peacefully passed away at Blakehurst Senior Living in Towson, MD. The former Ruxton resident was 90 years old.

Helen was born on April 19th, 1931 and was raised in New Jersey where she attended school, earning good grades that eventually led her to attend Notre Dame of Maryland University where she earned a Bachelor's degree in Liberal Arts.

Helen met her husband, Charles McWilliams, and they married in 1954. They had one daughter, Mary. The three were able to travel often and enjoyed being abroad. From 1965 to 1968 they resided in Heidelberg, Germany. They then moved back to the United States where Ruxton became their home for the years to come.

Helen enjoyed spending her time at John's Hopkins Club, Women's Club of Roland Park, listening to classical music, being a spectator in awe at operas and ballets. Helen was a parishioner at the Roman Catholic Cathedral of Mary Our Queen where she served on the welcoming committee for some time.

Helen is preceded in death by her father, Cornelius Collins, her mother Florence O'Grady, her husband Charles McWilliams, her brother Daniel

Collins, and her daughter Mary Pickett. Helen is survived by her two grandchildren, Sean and Lauren
