“ I was fortune to not only have a good father to raise and teach me well but also a dear friend who cherished council will never quite be replaced. I am so pleased he lived out his days independently and on his own terms. The days we shared were...."the stuff dreams are made of" God Bless you dad

Hank Reus, Jr - September 14, 2015 at 04:15 AM

My friendship with Hank spanned 49 years and I will miss him very much indeed. He was an honorable man who loved his family and friends. He had an intellectual curiosity and a willingness to share his knowledge and anything he could with others. Clear minded, clear speaking, logical folks like Hank are a special treasure. I will always appreciate the blessing of your friendship Hank. God Bless You, Vince
