

Mrs Isabelle H. Trainor

April 19, 1928 - June 5, 2023

On June 5, 2023, Isabelle Trainor (nee Holtman), predeceased by her beloved husband, Robert Edward Trainor; survived by her children Patrick Brian Trainor (Kathleen Godsey) and Pamela Anne Trainor.

Born in Baltimore City, she was the youngest of six daughters (Cele, Gertrude, Marie, Hilda, Agnes) of Joseph and Isabella Maria (nee Trageser) Holtman. She lived on Biddle St., E. Lafayette Ave., grew up in St. James Parish and later lived on Argonne Drive.

Isabelle attended Blessed Sacrament Parish and graduated from the Institute of Notre Dame ('46). After World War II, she went to work in the Accounting Dept. at the General Motors Plant on Broening Hwy. In 1953 she married Robert Edward Trainor, Director of Advertising, Baltimore Sun. Mrs. Trainor was thought to be the longest living subscriber to the Baltimore Sun, from 1953 until 2023. A record of 70 years. In 1956, Isabelle and her husband Bob bought their home in Towson and remained there until her passing.

After raising her family, she returned to work as a receptionist in the Undergraduate Admissions Dept at Loyola College for 20 years. She was a member of St. Pius X Church and a monthly contributor of casseroles to "Our Daily Bread Program."
