“ I was so shocked to hear today about the passing of Mr. Thomas. I worked for Gilman School for 31 years and he was the President of Gilman's Board when I was hired in 1983. I so clearly remember how kind and welcoming he was when I was first hired. He was also a friend and business associate of my late dad who was a former General Agent for the THEN Berkshire Life Insurance Company, now merged with the Guardian. My dad had nothing but the HIGHEST praise for Mr. Thomas - spoke of him in GLOWING terms, ALWAYS. My condolences to the entire Thomas family. Heaven has a bright new star!

“ I'll miss my friend, it is hard to believe, i remember his love and laughter always, he taught me alot about American history. I wish I could talk to him just one single word, but all the glory be to God almighty who can give all the courage to mr Richard Thomas's family and his wife Mary
