Mr. Oakey and I worked together for over 20 years. He was a man who expected good results and maintained a solid plan for the success of Good Sam. He made it his job to know and care about the workers at all levels.

I met Mr Oakey in September of 1985 when I became part of the “Good Sam Family.” He one of the Best “Management” people ever! Whether you worked Nights or Days, taking care of patients or in some obscure department or office, Mr Oakey made a point to know You and your Family.

*Mr Oakey exuded Good Sam and was the epitome of a Good Samaritan. My sincere sympathy to all of his Family. RIP Mr Oakey.
