

Janice Todd Walter

July 20, 1944 - April 7, 2026

Janice Simpson Todd Walter, born July 20, 1944, in Baltimore, Maryland, passed away peacefully in Charlottesville, Virginia, on April 7 at 81.

Janice was a graduate of Parkville High School and, in 1965, earned her nursing degree from the Church Home and Hospital School of Nursing. In the same year, she married her high school sweetheart.

Janice was a steadfast supporter of fellow military spouses and volunteered with the USO and the American Red Cross. She was a career nurse, primarily with Kaiser Permanente, and cared deeply for others. Her most precious memories were playing mahjong and bridge with friends and caring for her beloved schnauzers.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 56 years, Lt. Col. Warren Edmond Walter (d. 2022), and her parents, Nellie Jean Todd and John Oliver Todd. She is survived by her sisters, Susan Cormack and Laurie Granata; her children, Jennifer Mae (Paul), Warren Todd (Lisa), and Jonathan Howard (Tracy); and five grandchildren: Warren Tyler, Brandon Michael, Caitlin Prescott, Evan George, and Tate Jonathan.

Friends may call Mitchell-Wiedefeld Funeral Home, Inc., 6500 York Rd., Baltimore, MD 21212, on Monday, April 20th, for a visitation from 3:00 - 7:00 PM. The funeral service will then be held beginning at 6:00 PM. Interment will be held at Arlington National Cemetery later.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the SPCA (spca.org) or American Heart Association (heart.org).
