

Mr. Jason C. D'Anna

December 5, 1976 - March 5, 2023

Jason Christopher D'Anna was born on December 5, 1976, and passed on March 5, 2023. Beloved son to Anna and Richard, he is survived by his siblings Rich, Brian, D'Anne, Dawn, and Denise, his nephew Jake, his nieces Katie, Paige, and Aria, along with many aunts, uncles, and cousins both in the US and Canada.

Jason was born in Brooklyn, NY, and grew up in both New Jersey and Maryland. However, he spent most of his life in New York City and its five boroughs. He was a true New Yorker who loved his Italian food.

Jason had a constant, cheerful disposition and was a consummate jokester. It was fun to be around Jason because his positive energy was contagious. He was blessed with an excellent voice and often entertained family with his version of Happy Birthday sung in Italian. His love of automobiles began in childhood and continued his entire life. The more exotic and expensive the car, the better! Intelligence and hard work enabled him to graduate from Pace University with a degree in business management. His people skills were exemplary, and he easily made friends with everyone. His honesty was admired by many; as a result, he held a variety of management positions in the retail industry and was often rewarded with increasing levels of responsibility.

Jason was a beacon of hope to many of those who knew him. He was a kind soul who was sadly taken from us too early. Surely he is enjoying the company of his Nan, Pop, and his little buddy Paco in Heaven.

Rest in Peace, Jason.

“ Jason was a charming, smart, and funny man who i had the pleasure of being friends with for many years. It is heartbreaking that he not with us anymore but i take comfort knowing that he's looking over us. Rest in peace, Jason.
