“ There's e legend of a tear drop that rolled down a cheek one day, and it fell upon a tombstone where a family had gone to pray. And it sparkled like a diamond as it ventured toward the sod, and it's brilliance was so startling it caught the eye of God. That teardrop, born of sorrow for a young man who had died, was shed in grief and sadness by his family who had cried. But it had a special meaning to the Father up above, for that tear was just loaded with all his family's love. In its loving sparkling brilliance God recalled the teardrop home, and he showed the young man, who no more on earth would roam. Then God took that brilliant teardrop shed in love on earth afar, and he placed it in the heavens with His brightest morning star. So when you look into the heavens where ten million stars are spread, you may see a lovely teardrop that in sorrow you have shed. To the Huber Family my deepest sympathies from across the country at the loss of Jeremy from a Blue Jays extended family member #19 always in our hearts
